THE HIGHLIGHTS OF JAVA

JAKARTA TO BALI

On this 16-day cultural and rail adventure, we will take you from jungles to markets, temples to mountains and from the cities to the coast, trying delicious food and staying in premium colonial hotels along the way. Start in Jakarta, a chaotic megalopolis of 36 million people and travel on the fastest high-speed train in Southeast Asia to the “Paris of Java” in Bandung, before taking a luxurious Panoramic railcar to Yogyakarta to see the world UNESCO heritage temple sites of Borobudur and Prambanan. Spend two nights at the magnificent MesaStila five-star resort and spa hotel in Losari, ride on a chartered steam locomotive in Ambarawa and travel on the privately chartered ‘Steam Loco Jaladara’ in Surakarta. After two nights at Hotel Tugu, a colonial era masterpiece in Malang, and time spent exploring the town’s Dutch architecture, take 4WDs to Mt Bromo volcano for a stunning sunrise, ride a local train to tour the coffee and cocoa plantations at Kalibaru before finishing in paradise in Ubud on the island of Bali. With an Australian tour leader and an expert local guide, plus support vehicles so you can ride the rails just with carry-on luggage, this Indonesian grand voyage is bound to please.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

- Be rewarded with a stunning sunrise at the volcanic Mt Bromo
- See the largest Buddhist temple in the world at Borobudur
- Stay in a range of 5-star colonial, boutique and antique style hotels
- Ride on a bullet train, a Panoramic rail car and two heritage steam locos
- Hop on a traditional becak cycle rickshaw to see Yogyakarta
- Try signature dishes such as Nasi Goreng and Beef Rendang

YOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1 Thursday 11 June 2026

Jakarta

Arrive in Jakarta and settle into your hotel – a 1920s style Art Deco and neoclassical residence. Enjoy some free time before meeting at the hotel’s reception at 6pm to transfer for dinner at the Tugu Kunstkring Paleis restaurant. This grand art gallery and cultural venue is housed in a 110-year-old restored Dutch colonial building and will be one of your most memorable dinners on the tour. Overnight: The Hermitage, A Tribute Portfolio Hotel, Jakarta (D)

DAY 2 Friday 12 June 2026

Jakarta

This morning, enjoy a tour of Jakarta visiting the Istiqlal Mosque, the 132-metre-high MONAS monument on Merdeka Square, Gereja Sion church and the historic colonial Dutch old town. Wander past the Batavia train station, the Kali Besar Barat canal, the Dutch Stadhuis and see the Si Jagur Portuguese cannon. Enjoy lunch in a 200-year-old colonial building, the Batavia Café, tour Sunda Kelapa Harbor and Chinatown, and marvel at Peranakan architecture at the Candra Naya Chinese mansion. Free evening. Overnight: The Hermitage, A Tribute Portfolio Hotel, Jakarta (B,L)

DAY 3 Saturday 13 June 2026

Bandung

After breakfast, we’ll travel on the fastest high-speed train in Southeast Asia, the WHOOSH train to Bandung. Travel at 340 kmph in business-class comfort on this newly built Chinese train and arrive in Bandung, where you’ll transfer to your hotel for check in and lunch. Later, tour the city seeing colonial and Art Deco architecture, the Presidential Palace and the Grand Mosque. You’ll also visit a bamboo musical instrument workshop and craft centre to see a performance by village students. Enjoy some free time, before dinner at the impressive Plataran restaurant.

Overnight: Aryaduta Hotel, Bandung (B,L,D)

DAY 4 Sunday 14 June 2026

Yogyakarta

After breakfast this morning, travel on Eksekutif Class Luxury Panoramic railcars for the 500km journey to Yogyakarta. Enjoy lunch on board, served by private butlers and arrive in the early afternoon. Yogyakarta, or “Jogja” is an important centre for classical Javanese fine arts, music, poetry and literature and is our base for the next 3 nights. Upon arrival, transfer to Royal Ambarukmo Yogyakarta, a historic luxury hotel that was once a royal palace. Check in and enjoy a guided hotel tour, where you’ll learn about the property’s rich heritage. Enjoy a free evening.

Overnight: Royal Ambarukmo, Yogyakarta (B,L)

DAY 5 Monday 15 June 2026

Yogyakarta

This morning, you’ll ride a becak bike taxi to the Taman Sari Water Castle, the site of a former royal garden of the Sultanate of Yogyakarta. Afterwards, tour the royal Kraton complex which is the seat of the reigning Sultan and his family and enjoy lunch at a traditional restaurant. Visit the Leksa Ganesha Batik Gallery where you’ll meet local women who make these colourful dyed textiles, before creating some designs yourself. Later, see how the iconic Wayang Kulit leather puppets are produced and experience a puppet show. Return to your hotel for a free evening.

Overnight: Royal Ambarukmo, Yogyakarta (B,L)

DAY 6 Tuesday 16 June 2026

Yogyakarta

This morning, you’ll visit the charismatic Kota Gede area to see the Mataram mosque, a local market, royal tombs, and visit a traditional Javanese home. Later, you’ll tour the iconic temples of Prambanan – the largest Hindu temple site in Indonesia, enjoy lunch in the village of Bugisan and visit a family home to learn about their way of life. In the early evening, sip a fruity cocktail and enjoy dinner while watching the sunset over Mount Merapi, before enjoying a spectacular Ramayana Ballet performance in an open-air theatre with Prambanan Temple as the backdrop.

Overnight: Royal Ambarukmo, Yogyakarta (B,L,D)

DAY 7 Wednesday 17 June 2026

Losari

This morning, you'll tour the 8th century Borobudur, the largest Buddhist temple in the world and one of the best temple sights in South East Asia. Enjoy lunch at the colonial Van Bloemen 1881 restaurant, visit the Candi Mendut temple and drive to Losari for a stay in plantation-style resort. Set in the middle of a working Javanese coffee plantation, the MesaStila luxury 5-star resort and spa incorporates a collection of remarkable antiques and enchanting buildings; including a colonial railway station and historic villas. After check in, dinner is at leisure.

Overnight: MesaStila Resort & Spa, Losari (B,L)

DAY 8 Thursday 18 June 2026

Losari

This morning, drive to Ambarawa for a ride on a chartered heritage steam train travelling to Tuntang and along the beautiful Lake Rawa Pening. Later, tour the historic Ambarawa Railway Station Museum to see over 20 steam locos and learn about why the town was used for military purposes during the colonial government of the Dutch East Indies. After lunch, we'll return to our hotel to enjoy a walking tour of the MesaStila coffee plantation to try some Robusta coffee grown on the grounds and to see traditional techniques of roasting and grinding the beans. Free evening.

Overnight: MesaStila Resort & Spa, Losari (B,L)

DAY 9 Friday 19 June 2026

Surakarta

After breakfast, we'll drive to Surakarta, the cultural capital of East Java. Check into your hotel, enjoy lunch together and take part in a guided tour of the city via a ride on a chartered train – the Steam Loco Jaladara! The train was built in Germany in 1896 and has been used in the city ever since. You'll travel in restored Victorian-style wooden carriages, stopping to tour the official residence of the Mayor, the Danarhadi Batik Museum, and the Kauman Batik Village. Enjoy some free time before enjoying dinner in the exclusive Pura Mangkunegaran Palace.

Overnight: Alila Hotel, Surakarta (B,L,D)

DAY 10 Saturday 20 June 2026

Malang

This morning, we'll continue by train from Surakarta to Malang. Enjoy lunch on board, and arrive in the town in the mid-afternoon. Upon arrival, you will check into your hotel, the outstanding 5-star property Tugu Park Malang and unwind. The hotel was built and designed by its founder to house his vast, priceless collection of antiques and is one of the best and most unique hotels in the world. Enjoy a guided tour of the hotel, some free time before enjoying dinner in one of their historic restaurants.

Overnight: Hotel Tugu, Malang (B,L,D)

DAY 11 Sunday 21 June 2026

Malang

After breakfast today, you will explore the leafy boulevards of Malang. The city is well known for its mild highland climate and during Dutch colonization, it was a popular destination for European residents. Luckily, it retains much of its colonial architecture and our tour today will visit many significant buildings, the vibrant Pasar Besar and the Kota Malang bird market, before enjoying lunch. Later, you'll wander the whimsical neighbourhood of Kampung Warni Widi and the rainbow village of Jodipan. Free evening.

Overnight: Hotel Tugu, Malang (B,L)

DAY 12 Monday 22 June 2026

Mt Bromo

This morning, we'll take the scenic route by road to the magnificent Mt Bromo volcano. The 'lunar-lesque' landscape of epic proportions and surreal beauty, Gunung Mt Bromo is one of the country's most breathtaking sights. The eerie landscape has spurred countless legends and myths and the grey ashen-covered ground creates an unusual atmosphere, which is often compared to the moon's surface. Upon arrival at the hotel, enjoy lunch and check-in. Enjoy time at leisure, and an early evening so you're well rested for the early start of our 4WD sunrise excursion tomorrow.

Overnight: Jiwa Jawa Bromo, Mt Bromo (B,L)

DAY 13 Tuesday 23 June 2026

Ketapang

Depart early, with your takeaway breakfast box and a hot cup of Javanese coffee to experience the sun rising from behind the Mt Bromo volcano. We'll then continue by 4WD to the volcano caldera and return to our hotel, check out and drive to the Probolinggo train station for the train journey to Kalibaru.

Enjoy lunch, and take part in a Coffee, Cocoa, and Rubber Plantation Tour at the Scottish built Glenmore Plantation. Visit the historic Glenmore Railway Station and drive to Ketapang, a town near Banyuwangi, arriving in the late afternoon.

Overnight: Ketapang Indah Hotel, Ketapang (B,L,D)

DAY 14 Wednesday 24 June 2026

Ubud

This morning, we'll cross the Bail Strait via ferry. Disembark, and continue by road for lunch in a village restaurant and stop at Beratan Lake to visit the magnificent Ulun Danu Beratan Temple, the islands most iconic landmark. Arrive in Ubud, Bali's main Hindu town and cultural heart. The towns cooler climate, lush vegetation and cultural and arts scene makes it an ideal escape from the heat and bustle of Bali's busy beach towns. Check into your hotel and enjoy a free evening, where there's the option of seeing a traditional Kecak dance performance.

Overnight: Arma Museum and Resort, Ubud (B,L)

DAY 15 Thursday 25 June 2026

Ubud

This morning after breakfast, there's free time to relax at the resort before a mid-morning walking tour. Gain an insight into daily village life as you pass lush rice fields, learning about Bali's traditional Alang-Alang thatch roofing and stop by a Balinese home for coffee and a simple lunch. Later, see the sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary and finish in central Ubud, where you'll have time to explore the many boutique shops, galleries, and cafes. Enjoy a free afternoon before re-grouping for a spectacular farewell dinner together.

Overnight: Arma Museum and Resort, Ubud (B,L,D)

DAY 16 Friday 26 June 2026

Ubud

After breakfast, tour arrangements conclude.
