Natalie is an accomplished Australian designer with over 20 years' experience in the Patchwork and Quilting industry, as a quilt and small project designer, shop owner, fabric designer and teacher. Natalie's designs are featured in books, patterns, and fabric. Her style is uncomplicated, fun and heartfelt, with her own hand-drawn images used for stitchery and appliqué designs, as well as in her fabrics. "I'm inspired by my garden and nature's beauty around me, also my family and friends. My designs often feature sentimental sayings and cute critters, and I love to use multiple hand-stitching techniques together in projects." Her designs have been published in many Australian and international magazines, with Owl & Hare Hollow featuring in Homespun Magazine this year and A Letter To My Daughter in 2021. Natalie enjoys sharing her knowledge and love for handwork techniques in particular, through teaching workshops. She has taught in Europe, New Zealand and around Australia.

Itinerary

DAY 1 Tuesday 12 March, 2024

Departure

This afternoon board the Ovation of the Seas on this fantastic Hand Stitching at Sea cruise to New Zealand. Be up on deck as we cruise Sydney Harbour and out through Sydney Heads.

DAY 2 Wednesday 13 March, 2024

Cruising Tasman Sea

This morning and afternoon workshops will be offered with Natalie. We will enjoy a welcome cocktail party to meet other members of the Hand Stitching at Sea Cruise.

DAY 3 Thursday 14 March, 2024

Cruising Tasman Sea

This morning and afternoon workshops will be offered by Natalie.

DAY 4 Friday 15 March, 2024

Picton

We will call into Picton our first New Zealand port this morning. Located in the north of the south island around a sheltered harbour it was named in 1859 after Sir Thomas Picton. We travel to visit the Quilters Barn in nearby Blenheim. They sell a variety of 100 per cent cotton fabrics and many quilting products and conduct a help desk. We continue with a visit to a nearby winery where we will have time to taste their wine before returning to the ship.

DAY 5 Saturday 16 March, 2024

Napier

Today we dock at Napier, a coastal city on New Zealand's North Island. It is set amid the renowned wine-producing region of Hawke's Bay. Rebuilt after a 1931 earthquake, the city is known for its numerous art deco landmarks and celebrates its art deco heritage annually with the famous Art Deco Festival. We will enjoy an Art Deco walking tour to see these attractive buildings, before visiting the Art Deco Centre, which is full of treasures we will be able to buy. We continue with a visit to the Purple Patch Handicraft shop, which is run by volunteers. It sells handcrafted goods and wares.

DAY 6 Sunday 17 March, 2024

Wellington

This morning we will have a sightseeing tour of the main sights of Wellington including the Houses of Parliament known as "the Beehive". We visit Mount Victoria, where we have 360 degree views of the city. We continue with a visit to Busy Bee quilt shop, where many quilting supplies are available.

Work on brand new projects, designed exclusively for the cruise. Projects to include a block-style quilt with various handwork techniques, as well as various smaller projects.

Ovation of the Seas

Ovation of the Seas is a Quantum class ship in the Royal Caribbean fleet. Royal Caribbean have certainly made a Quantum leap forward with the facilities on the ship. On-board the Ovation of the Seas there are a whole host of new concepts. One is the North Star, a London Eye type capsule offering you 360 degree views of your current surroundings from 90 meters above the sea! Another introduction is the SeaPlex, the largest indoor active space at sea, here you'll find 30 bumper cars, a roller rink, a full size basketball court, a circus school, floating DJ booth and a food truck!. In the Bionic Bar, Bionic barmen can mix two cocktails a minute with their laser precision ensuring that the thirst is well and truly quenched. The staterooms on-board the Ovation of the Seas are the most spacious in the Royal Caribbean fleet. All the staterooms have soothing aesthetics and sea inspired colour. There are virtual balconies in the interior staterooms with floor to ceiling virtual screens to give you the feel of an ocean view where you can enjoy the sunset and sunrise from the comfort of your interior stateroom. There are three main restaurants; American Icon Grill, Silk (for Asian fusion) and The Grande for more formal dining. The Vitality at sea Spa includes a Vitality Café and 158 cardio and fitness machines.

Clothing on board Ovation of the Seas

During the day casual clothing is typical, although shorts and swimwear are not permitted in the formal restaurants.

Smart casual attire is required in the public lounges and formal restaurants.

DAY 7 Monday 18 March, 2024

Dunedin

We arrive in the city of Dunedin this morning. Originally founded by Scottish settlers and known as the "Edinburgh of the South", it now consists of beautifully preserved buildings overlooking parklands. We will visit the historic Jacobean-style Olveston House, containing a treasure trove of art and antiques, as we explore this attractive city. We continue with a visit to New Zealand's 'castle' which overlooks the Otago Peninsular. Built from 1871, by William Larnach, merchant banker and politician, Larnach Castle showcases beautiful Victorian craftsmanship and antiques. The Barker family bought the 14-hectare property in 1967 and restored the house and garden which attained a 6★ Garden of International Significance award from the NZ gardens trust. Later in the afternoon we will visit the Fabric Store, which stocks glorious gingham, twills and stripes and beautiful linens.

DAY 8 Tuesday 19 March, 2024

Fiordland National Park

Today we cruise through some of the most spectacular scenery in New Zealand as we visit Milford Sound, Doubtful Sound and Dusky Sound.

Fiordland National Park will be a highlight of the cruise, with spectacular scenery and fascinating wildlife. We will offer a workshop this afternoon.

DAY 9 Wednesday 20 March, 2024

Cruising Tasman Sea

This morning and afternoon we are offering workshops or you might like to attend activities offered by the ship. We will enjoy a relaxing day at sea.

DAY 10 Thursday 21 March, 2024

Cruising Tasman Sea

Today we will offer workshops in the morning and afternoon or you might like to enjoy some of the many activities available aboard the Ovation of the Seas. This evening we will enjoy a farewell drinks party.
