Itinerary

DAY 1 Saturday 4 October 2025

Hobart

Today we arrive in Hobart to commence the tour. We will meet at the airport following our respective flights. We will be taken to our accommodation for the next two nights. Upon arrival there will be welcome drinks to get to know each other.

DAY 2 Sunday 5 October 2025

Hobart

Today we visit the Tasmania Transport Museum, which showcases a fascinating collection of historic vehicles, including trains, trams, buses, and other transport artifacts, offering a glimpse into Tasmania's rich transportation history. We will then have time for lunch before we transfer to The Wooden Boat Centre Tasmania.

The Wooden Boat Centre is a unique workshop and museum dedicated to preserving the art of traditional wooden boat building, offering hands-on experiences and insights into Tasmania's maritime heritage. We will get a private tour followed by a demonstration on how timber is bent to build their boats.

DAY 3 Monday 6 October 2025

Strahan

Today we will leave Hobart and travel to Strahan. Along the way we will stop for lunch at Hamilton bistro (own expense) as well as a stop at Derwent bridge where we will visit 'The Wall'. The Wall is an impressive art installation featuring intricate wood carvings that depict the history and people of Tasmania, beautifully sculpted into a massive timber wall. Once we arrive in Strahan you will have a free afternoon to explore.

DAY 4 Tuesday 7 October 2025
Strahan

This morning we will enjoy a spectacular journey on the West Coast Railway. This offers a scenic journey through rugged landscapes and dense rainforests, powered by historic steam locomotives that celebrate the region's rich mining and railway heritage. Following the rail journey the rest of the afternoon will be free. In the evening from 5:30pm we will watch the comedy play "The ship that never was". Australia's longest running play performing in Strahan since 1994, it tells the hilarious true story about the last Great Escape from Sarah Island.

DAY 5 Wednesday 8 October 2025
Burnie

This morning, we leave Strahan by coach to travel to Burnie. Along the way we will stop for a coffee. We will then travel to Wynyard to see the Ransley Veteran Car Collection, home to a world-class historic car collection, including the equal oldest Ford in the world. There will be time for lunch after which we enjoy a tour and some tastings at Hallers distillery, Australia's oldest distillery. You will also be able to seal your own bottle of whiskey to take home.

DAY 6 Thursday 9 October 2025
Launceston

This morning, we board the Don River Railway, a half an hour return train journey from Don. We will be able to relax with a train trip on the historic Melrose Line, taking in views of the township of Don and areas of historic value to the area. After the conclusion of the ride, we will also visit the museum and workshop which has heritage locomotives and carriages on display. Afterwards we will have a break for lunch. In the afternoon we will visit Longford. Longford holds a significant place in Australian motorsport history as it was home to the Longford Circuit, a renowned street racing track that hosted major events from 1953 to 1968, including the Australian Grand Prix and the Tasman Series, attracting legendary drivers like Jack Brabham, Jim Clark, and Bruce McLaren. We will see where the track used to run and will visit the pub which contains a museum and old racing car. We then check into our accommodation in Launceston.

DAY 7 Friday 10 October 2025
Launceston

This morning, we visit the National Automobile Museum of Tasmania. The National Automobile Museum of Tasmania showcases a remarkable collection of vintage cars, motorcycles, and memorabilia, celebrating the evolution of automotive history in Australia and beyond. After lunch we visit Pearn's Steam World in Westbury, the biggest collection of steam engines in the Southern Hemisphere. There is also a motor trash and treasure shop outside which we will visit. Following this we will head back to Launceston where we will have a free afternoon to explore. You may like to check out Queen Vic Museum which gives an amazing perspective of local history.

DAY 8 Saturday 11 October 2025
Launceston

This morning we will visit the infamous Beaconsfield mine. The Beaconsfield Mine & Heritage Centre offers an interactive journey through Tasmania's mining history, featuring engaging exhibits and artifacts from the town's gold mining era, including the dramatic 2006 mine rescue story. Then we will visit a private collection enabling us to see many classic automobiles. After a break for lunch we will also visit Richardson's Harley Museum. The museum follows the history and life of the Harley-Davidson® family and business and contains a 1900s A6 Flannery-Harley-Gallion Co. pushbike, one of only a few examples left in the world as well as a 1940 Ex-Army Indian Scout and replica garage set out. Following this we will have an included group farewell dinner to celebrate a great trip.

DAY 9 Sunday 12 October 2025
Departure

Today we will travel to Launceston airport and will board our flights home with the tour concluding.
